PARTNERS

PARTNER WITH AVEO.

Brands, venues, promoters, vendors and suppliers: how to work with AVEO on its own events, from ORIGIN 27 onwards, and on the events it produces for others.

AVEO

EVENTS, RUN END TO END.

AVEO runs its own events and produces events for companies, organisations, promoters and partners. One team handles the venue, the production, the tickets, the doors and the guests.

Events across.

Music, Business, Faith, Culture, Sport, Food and drink, Wellness, Charity: concerts and club nights, summits and forums, faith and community gatherings, launches, dinners and festivals.

AWARDS

The AVEO Business Awards

Sponsorship, partnerships, judging and nominations start with an expression of interest.

AT EVERY EVENT

HOW AVEO LOOKS AFTER PEOPLE.

Partners put their name beside AVEO's, so they should know how AVEO runs a room. These are AVEO's published rules.

Clear rules first

Every event page sets out bag size, re-entry, cloakroom, alcohol, smoking, food and dress code, so guests know before they arrive.

Staff who can help

Stewards, security and medical staff are there to help, and guests are asked to follow their instructions.

A code of conduct

Harassment, discrimination, violence, illegal drugs and weapons are not tolerated. Anyone who breaks the code may be removed without a refund.

Access for everyone

Free companion tickets, wheelchair spaces held at every seated event, and step-free routes listed on each event page.

On the night.

- Tickets and passes are scanned at named gates (main, VIP, staff and accessible entrances), each admitting the right tickets.
- A live count of who is inside, for the safety team, and a log of every scan with the gate and the steward.
- Risk assessments, licensed door supervisors, stewarding, medical cover and an incident log.
- Safety reports are read within 1 hour, every day.
